FINANCIAL PERKS

401K

HackerRank makes it easy! In partnership with our provider ADP, you will be auto-enrolled in the 401K plan, at a 5% employee contribution. You can change that percentage to be higher or lower, or completely opt out. We offer a traditional pre-tax option as well as a post-tax Roth option.

Employee Stock Options

You have the chance to share ownership of the company with employee stock options. Our program gives the holder the right to buy our company's stock at a future date at a price established at the time of issue. Our vesting schedule (for exercising the option to buy) is 4 years with a 1 year cliff.

- 1st year - 25%
- 1/48 initial granted shares will be vested monthly for the next 3 years.

Professional Development Reimbursement

At HackerRank, we believe learning and development should be easily accessible and flexible. Learning options are driven by the employee's personal needs, along with the requirements of the role. HackerRank will reimburse up to $300 per calendar year for each employee to invest in themselves; online/in-person training, workshops, webinars, certification programs, etc.

Employee Referral Program

Bring your besties to HackerRank - and get paid $2500 - $5000 when they join the team.

Home Office/Tech Perks

Every HackerRanker gets a MacBook Pro, monitor, mouse, and keyboard. In addition, every new hire gets $250 for initial home office setup and $150 a month for remote work enablement.

WELL BEING PERKS

Flexible Remote-First Culture

Work from home, the beach, or wherever you're most productive as long as work tasks are done. At HackerRank, it's not about when or where you work, it's about the contribution and impact you make on the team, our customers, and our community. We want our HackerRackers to be the best version of themselves, personally and professionally, so we strive to create a remote-first culture where everyone feels connected, enabled, and supported.

Generous Paid Time Off

We offer a generous PTO plan for our team to take the time they need; whether it be for appointments, field trips, long weekends, or a dream vacation. We also adopt a few company-wide days off and limited-meeting Fridays, allowing for maximum rest and recharge.

Paid Holidays

- New Year's Day
- Martin Luther King Jr Day
- President's Day
- Memorial Day
- Juneteenth
- Day before Independence Day
